

Worldwide Arts & Sciences Opportunities
International Communications Council
Road to Oxford ® 5677926
Road to Cambridge ® 5677927

× July 20××

To whom it may concern,

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

XXXXXX

The student named below has been admitted to the International Relations Course 2024 held at Oxford International College during the period the 4th August 2024 – the 24th August 2024.

Sur Name	Given Name	Date of Birth	Passport No.	Date of Expiry

The student participates in the International Relations Course 2024 that is promoted by the JV-Campus, Japan Forum for Internationalization of Universities projected by MEXT, Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

The International Relations Course 2024 is operated and administered by ICC International Communications Council in collaboration with Oxford International Education Group, at the University of Oxford.

The student has paid fully for the full amount of the registration fee and the programme fee of tuition, room and board, and activities. The student has the necessary financial capability to support him/herself for the duration of the course.

The student will be met by one of the Oxford International Education Group representatives at the time of arrival on the 4th August 2024 and transported directly to the School.

The student will stay at c/o Oxford International Education Group of which the Head Office is 259 Greenwich High Road, London SE10 8NB United Kingdom and will return to his/her home university upon completion of the course.

In case of queries please contact:

Paul Hurcombe

Director

Oxford International Education Group

Head Office: 259 Greenwich High Road, London SE10 8NB United Kingdom

T: +44 (0) 20 8312 8072 +44 (0) 20 8293 1444

Masumi Akaishi
Programme Director
ICC International Communications Council